Responding to God's Love

In this world you will have trouble...

The Easter story is a journey. A journey that follows Jesus through the darkness of the crucifixion and into the light of new life that comes with the resurrection. As we travel on this journey we may be confronted by the darkness that dwells within each of us - the darkness of sin and despair and the darkness that we encounter in a troubled world.

As we encounter these troubles, let us be reminded of the words of Jesus:

In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world. John 16:33b

So, this Easter, whatever threatens to lead you into deeper darkness, remember that Christ has come for you, and that in his name the darkness has no power over you. Call on him in your time of need and turn to him with all that troubles you. As you lean on his strength, you will begin to experience his joy and peace.

My prayer for you all

May you know his love and live in his strength this Easter.

May the darkness within and without shrink from his glorious light.

May the Spirit lead you, and may God keep you, safe and sound.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.
Amen

Grace and Peace

Dear friends

Thank you all very much for your prayer support over the past three months. While the hospital stay has been difficult, I have kept my faith in the one Richard Rohr calls 'The Founder of the Firm'. Isaiah 41:10 has been a significant inspiration.

There is a tiny light in the ceiling of my hospital room here at the rehab centre which reminds each night me of God's unfailing presence and his never-failing love, even after these 114 days in hospital.

Thank you too for the food for Derek, the meals and gifts for me. This even has been most unexpected, but I am confident that we will see it through.

Love,

Annette

Prayer Chain

A new Prayer Chain is being developed. If you wish to join this ministry please contact me immediately.

This is especially important if you have been on a previous Prayer Chain and wish to continue as a contact, as I have no earlier lists and this will be a completely new Chain.

Thank for your early cooperation so that I can have the complete list finalised quickly.
